BEST PLACE TO WORK BY HOUSTON BUSINESS JOURNAL
TWO YEARS IN A ROW

Houston, Texas - Legge, Farrow, Kimmitt, McGrath & Brown, L.L.P., a 14-lawyer civil litigation firm, has been recognized by the Houston Business Journal as one of Houston's Best Places to Work, a designation the firm also earned in 2005. This is the sixth year the Houston Business Journal has sponsored these awards recognizing companies in the Houston area. Designation as a "Best Place to Work" is based upon confidential surveys of employees measuring forty attributes known to drive employee engagement with organizations. Questions on the survey were broken down into various categories which included:

- Team effectiveness
- Alignment with goals
- Trust with co-workers
- Individual contribution
- Manager effectiveness
- Trust in senior leaders
- Work Engagement

Based on employees' responses to the survey, Legge Farrow ranked eleventh among all Houston-area companies. "We are pleased to receive this recognition for the second year in a row", said Jerry Kimmitt, the firm's managing partner. "We believe our designation as one of Houston's best places to work recognizes not only the firm's positive work environment, but also the individual contributions of our employees, who we know are Legge Farrow's most valuable assets." Legge Farrow represents foreign and domestic companies in the energy, insurance, marine, healthcare, construction, and financial industries, among others.
